NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

Exhibit A to the Founding Circle Founding Document

CONFIDENTIAL

Parties

This Non-Disclosure Agreement (this "Agreement") is entered into as of the date signed below (the "Effective Date") between:

Disclosing Party:

Joe R Martin, Founder, AuriOS™ / The Intelligence Superhighway™, Houston, Texas

Receiving Party:

Full Legal Name: _____

Address: _____

City, State, ZIP: _____

Email Address: _____

Phone Number: _____

The Disclosing Party and Receiving Party are referred to collectively as the "Parties" and individually as a "Party."

Purpose

The Disclosing Party intends to disclose certain confidential and proprietary information to the Receiving Party for the purpose of evaluating a potential Founding Circle membership role in AuriOS and/or The Intelligence Superhighway project (the "Purpose"). The Receiving Party agrees to receive such information solely for the Purpose and subject to the terms of this Agreement.

Confidential Information

"Confidential Information" means any and all information disclosed by the Disclosing Party to the Receiving Party, whether orally, in writing, electronically, or by any other means, that is designated as confidential or that reasonably should be understood to be confidential given the nature of the information and circumstances of disclosure. Confidential Information includes without limitation:

- (a) Technical architecture, system design, database schema, software code, algorithms, and implementation details of AuriOS and related systems;
- (b) Intellectual property concepts, inventions, patent-pending or potentially patentable methods, including but not limited to Query Preview, Prompt Assist, the Auri Identity Interface, AISP as a category, IBT Mode synthesis, MQI Public Profile, and Auri Identity;
- (c) Business plans, strategies, financial projections, pricing, and commercialization plans;
- (d) The identity of and information about other Founding Circle members, advisors, and persons identified in the Names and Entities Register;
- (e) The contents of the Founding Document, Nomenclature Library, IP Concepts and Disclosures log, and Names and Entities Register;
- (f) Any other information that the Disclosing Party designates as confidential at the time of disclosure.

Confidential Information does not include information that the Receiving Party can demonstrate: (i) was publicly known at the time of disclosure; (ii) becomes publicly known through no act or omission of the Receiving Party; (iii) was rightfully known by the Receiving Party prior to disclosure without restriction; or (iv) is required to be disclosed by applicable law or court order, provided the Receiving Party gives the Disclosing Party prompt written notice and cooperates with efforts to obtain a protective order.

Obligations of the Receiving Party

The Receiving Party agrees to:

- (g) Hold all Confidential Information in strict confidence and protect it using at least the same degree of care used to protect its own confidential information, but in no event less than reasonable care;
- (h) Not disclose Confidential Information to any third party without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party;
- (i) Use Confidential Information solely for the Purpose and for no other purpose whatsoever;
- (j) Not reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, or otherwise attempt to derive the source, structure, or underlying ideas of any Confidential Information;
- (k) Not copy, reproduce, or summarize Confidential Information except as strictly necessary for evaluation of the Purpose;
- (l) Promptly notify the Disclosing Party upon becoming aware of any unauthorized disclosure or use of Confidential Information;
- (m) Not file any patent application, trademark application, or other intellectual property filing based on or incorporating Confidential Information without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party.

Intellectual Property

All Confidential Information, including all inventions, ideas, concepts, and methods disclosed by the Disclosing Party, remains the exclusive property of the Disclosing Party. Nothing in this Agreement grants the Receiving Party any license, right, title, or interest in any Confidential Information or any intellectual property rights of the Disclosing Party.

The Receiving Party acknowledges that certain concepts disclosed under this Agreement, including without limitation Query Preview, Prompt Assist, the Auri Identity Interface (AII), the AISP category definition, IBT Mode synthesis, MQI Public Profile, and Auri Identity, may be the subject of pending or future patent applications or other intellectual property protection. The Receiving Party agrees not to take any action that would prejudice, interfere with, or otherwise harm the Disclosing Party's ability to obtain or enforce such intellectual property rights.

Term

This Agreement shall become effective on the Effective Date and shall remain in effect for a period of five (5) years from the Effective Date, unless earlier terminated by mutual written agreement of the Parties. Obligations with respect to Confidential Information that constitutes a trade secret shall survive termination of this Agreement for as long as such information remains a trade secret under applicable law.

No License or Commitment

This Agreement does not obligate either Party to enter into any further agreement, partnership, joint venture, or business relationship. No license, franchise, or other right in any Confidential Information is granted by this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to require the Disclosing Party to disclose any particular information.

Remedies

The Receiving Party acknowledges that any breach of this Agreement would cause irreparable harm to the Disclosing Party for which monetary damages would be an inadequate remedy. Accordingly, the Disclosing Party shall be entitled to seek equitable relief, including injunction and specific performance, in addition to all other remedies available at law or in equity, without the requirement to post bond or other security.

Governing Law and Dispute Resolution

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to its conflict of law provisions. Any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be resolved by binding arbitration in Harris County, Texas, in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association, except that either Party may seek injunctive or other equitable relief in any court of competent jurisdiction.

General Provisions

- (n) Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior discussions, understandings, and agreements.

- (o) Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended except by a written instrument signed by both Parties.
- (p) Waiver. Failure to enforce any provision of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of future enforcement of that or any other provision.
- (q) Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is found unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.
- (r) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, and electronic signatures shall be deemed valid.
- (s) No Assignment. The Receiving Party may not assign this Agreement or any rights hereunder without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party.
